

Designed for organisations seeking brand visibility, thought leadership positioning, and direct access to the Oracle user and partner ecosystem across Africa.

Brand and Marketing

- Receive a SAOUG icon or stamp, “Proud Member of the SAOUG”, for use on company collateral
- Be positioned alongside other member brands actively growing the Oracle user community in Africa
- Receive regular email and WhatsApp updates and invitations featuring SAOUG news, marketing initiatives, and events
- Inclusion in selected SAOUG social media features, including Member of the Month, news highlights, and event-related content
- Member of the Month recognition, featured on the SAOUG website and profiled across SAOUG social media platforms
- Opportunity to publish thought leadership blogs and papers, shared across SAOUG media channels

Events and Engagement

- Opportunity to present at a Special Interest Group (SIG) session through a company thought leader on a relevant or trending topic, including event marketing and speaker and brand visibility
- Fifteen percent discount on two delegate passes to attend the SAOUG Conference 2026
- Invitation to submit speaker proposals for consideration at the SAOUG Conference 2026
- Invitation to participate as a guest on a customer-centric panel at the SAOUG Conference 2026, subject to agenda relevance and programme balance
- Priority consideration to participate as a sponsor at the SAOUG Conference 2026

Website and Talent Visibility

- Complimentary company listing on the SAOUG website, including logo, contact details, company overview, and Oracle product or service offerings
- Complimentary job listings for roles requiring Oracle-related skills and expertise

Designed for certified Oracle partners seeking ecosystem visibility, partner-to-customer engagement, and meaningful contribution to the Oracle community across Africa.

Brand and Marketing

- Receive a SAOUG icon or stamp, “Proud Member of the SAOUG”, for use on company collateral
- Be positioned alongside other member organisations as a certified Oracle Partner contributing to the growth of the Oracle user community in Africa
- Receive regular email updates and invitations featuring SAOUG news, marketing initiatives, and events
- Inclusion in selected SAOUG social media features, including Member of the Month, partner highlights, and event-related content
- Member of the Month recognition, featured on the SAOUG website and profiled across SAOUG social media platforms
- Opportunity to publish thought leadership blogs and papers, shared across SAOUG media channels

Events and Engagement

- Complimentary attendance to invitation-only SAOUG hosted webinars, with access to all previous recordings
- Opportunity to present at a Special Interest Group (SIG) session through a partner thought leader on a relevant or trending topic, including event marketing and speaker and brand visibility
- Fifteen percent discount on one delegate pass to attend the SAOUG Conference 2026
- Invitation to submit speaker proposals for consideration at the SAOUG Conference 2026
- Priority consideration to participate as a sponsor at the SAOUG Conference 2026

Website and Talent Visibility

- Complimentary company listing on the SAOUG website, including logo, contact details, company overview, Oracle Partner certification status, and Oracle product or service offerings
- Complimentary job listings for roles requiring Oracle-related skills and expertise

Designed for independent Oracle professionals seeking visibility, knowledge sharing, and active participation in the Oracle user community across Africa.

Brand and Professional Visibility

- Receive a SAOUG icon or stamp, “Proud Member of the SAOUG”, for use on personal collateral and professional profiles
- Be positioned alongside other SAOUG members as an individual contributor committed to growing the Oracle user community in Africa
- Receive regular email updates and invitations featuring SAOUG news, marketing initiatives, and events
- Opportunity to submit personal blogs and thought leadership content for consideration and sharing across SAOUG channels

Events and Engagement

- Invitation to submit speaker proposals for consideration at the SAOUG Conference 2026, subject to agenda relevance and programme balance

Website and Professional Profile

- Complimentary individual listing on the SAOUG website, including photo or logo, contact details, short professional bio, and Oracle product or service offerings

Designed for students and early-career professionals seeking learning opportunities, exposure, and a pathway into the Oracle ecosystem across Africa.

Brand and Professional Development

- Receive a SAOUG icon or stamp, “Proud Member of the SAOUG”, for use on personal profiles and academic or professional collateral
- Be positioned alongside other SAOUG members as an emerging professional committed to learning and contributing to the Oracle user community in Africa
- Receive regular email updates and invitations featuring SAOUG news, learning opportunities, marketing initiatives, and events
- Opportunity to submit personal blogs and learning-focused content for consideration and sharing across SAOUG channels

Events and Engagement

- Invitation to submit speaker proposals or lightning talk submissions for consideration at the SAOUG Conference 2026, subject to agenda relevance and programme balance

Website and Professional Profile

- Complimentary individual listing on the SAOUG website, including photo or logo, contact details, short bio, and areas of Oracle interest or study

